1. License

[GGN LEGAL ENTITY NAME], doing business as The Global Grief Network ("GGN"), grants the licensee named below a personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to use the GGN Grief Practitioner Toolkit ("Toolkit") under these terms. The Toolkit is a Global Grief Network resource.

2. You may

- Print and use the tools with your own clients and groups, within your own scope of practice.
- Give clients copies of client handouts and worksheets for their personal use.
- Fill in the fillable PDFs and adapt the DOCX files for your own practice, such as adding your contact details or translating, as long as the GGN name, logo, copyright line, and safety and crisis content stay in place.

3. You may not

- Sell, sublicense, publish, post publicly, or share the Toolkit files with other practitioners or organizations.
- Remove or change the GGN name, logo, copyright notice, disclaimers, or crisis resources.

- Present the tools as your own work, or as diagnostic, assessment, or treatment instruments. GGN tools are for non-clinical grief support and do not diagnose or measure any condition.

5. Ownership and updates

GGN owns the Toolkit. GGN may issue updated versions, and licensees should use the latest version. This license ends automatically if you breach these terms or your credential lapses or is revoked. You must then stop using and delete the files, except copies already in client records.

6. Fees

License fee: [PRICE: set by GGN in Stripe, or "Included with credential"].

7. No warranty

The Toolkit is provided "as is." To the fullest extent the law allows, GGN is not liable for how the Toolkit is used in any practice.

Governing law. These terms are governed by the laws of [GOVERNING STATE: Colorado, placeholder because GGN is based in Fort Collins, Colorado; attorney to confirm], without regard to conflict of law rules, except where the law of your place of residence gives you protections that cannot be waived.
